

Kalaidascope of India with Nepal - 15 Days

India is a county steeped in cultural diversity, historical treasures and architectural wonders, set against a scenic backdrop of traditional rural settings and modern cities.

Start in Delhi, home to India's largest mosque and the memorial of Mahatma Gandhi. Move on to Jaipur where you can take a morning ride to the Amber Fort on the back of an elephant. Venture to the city of Agra and take in the breathtaking Taj Mahal, one of the seven wonders of the world. It was built by Emperor Shah Jehan as a mausoleum for his beloved Queen Mumtaz Mahal.

No Indian odyssey would be complete without a visit to Varanasi, Hinduism's holiest city. Enjoy a boat ride along the sacred Ganges River, then it's on to Kathmandu, the capital of Nepal, nestled high in the Himalayas. Drive to Durbar Square, a showcase of Nepalese architecture with over fifty palaces, pagodas, temples and monuments. Visit the temple of Machhendranath and the great stupa of Swayambhunath where the eyes of Buddha gaze upon you. India and Nepal will dazzle you with magnificent scenery, and immerse you in their mystical wonders.

Visit the Memorial of Mahatma Gandhi and the Jama Masjid, India's largest mosque, and on to view the famous Red Fort. This afternoon, tour New Delhi. Pass by the UNESCO World Heritage Qutab Minar, the world's tallest brick minaret (spire). Continue for a visit to the Mausoleum of Humayun and the 20th century Birla Temple. Drive past India Gate, the former Viceroy's Palace, and the Indian Parliament House. (B)

DAY 4, Sun DELHI TO JAIPUR

This morning, transfer to your hotel in Jaipur, the famed Pink City of India. The entire city was painted its unique pink color in 1876 to celebrate the visiting Prince of Wales. Several legends exist to explain why the color pink was chosen, but no matter the reason, it has come to represent the welcoming hospitality of Jaipur. Balance of the day at leisure. (B)

DAY 5, Mon JAIPUR- ELEPHANT RIDE & CITY TOUR

This morning's excursion takes you to the 16th century Amber Fort. Ascend the hill to the fort on the back of an elephant, and admire views of Jaipur's original city walls and the Maottha Lake below. In the afternoon, tour Jaipur, including visits to the observatory of Maharaja Jaisingh and the museum at the Maharaja City Palace. Drive past the 18th century Hawa Mahal ("Palace of Winds"), which has a streetside facade of 953 small windows designed to circulate wind throughout the palace; thus giving the palace its name. (B)

DAY 6, Tue JAIPUR TO AGRA

Travel to the medieval city of Agra via the deserted city of Fatehpur Sikri. Explore the well-preserved buildings of this UNESCO World Heritage Site, including the Panch Mahal Palace and 17th century Jama Masjid, one of the largest and most impressive in India. (B)

DAY 7, Wed AGRA - TAJ MAHAL & AGRA FORT

This morning, visit the Taj Mahal, one of the "Seven Wonders of the World," built by Emperor Shah Jehan as a mausoleum for his beloved Queen Mumtaz Mahal. This monumental construction, which took 22 years to complete (1631-53), is most famous for its imposing white-marble dome, and is considered the finest example of Mughal architecture in the world. Continue to the Taj's nearby sister monument, the Agra Fort, begun by Emperor Akbar the Great in the 16th century. View the palaces, mosques, and Halls of Public and Private Audiences of this UNESCO World Heritage Site. (B)
